

Join us in Becoming A Partner in Sustainability

South Lake Refuse & Recycling and Quackenbush Mountain Resource Recovery and Compost Facility are dedicated to Lake County's waste diversion goals. South Lake Refuse & Recycling in collaboration with Quackenbush Mountain Resource Recovery and Compost Facility [Quackenbush MRRCF] is reducing the county's waste stream and also producing local sustainable products. By keeping recyclable materials that were once shipped out of county for processing, in the county, South Lake Refuse and Recycling is reducing its carbon footprint and conserving precious natural resources.

Lake County residents can now benefit from the sustainable efforts of South Lake Refuse & Recycling and Quackenbush MRRCF by having access to low cost compost, soil, and other landscaping products produced at Quackenbush MRRCF. Join South Lake Refuse & Recycling and Quackenbush Mountain in becoming a partner in sustainability.
